

THE BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST – C

Luke tells us about Jesus' feeding of the great crowd by attributing to him the words and gestures of the Mass. The disciples are given the responsibility of distributing the bread, as they will later do in the Church. With but five loaves and two fish, all are fed to sufficiency; as in the Mass, what is left over is carefully collected. Like Jesus' cures, this miracle is the sign that God's kingdom is at hand. Jesus provides not only food for our bodies but satisfies our spiritual hunger. When the disciples wanted to dismiss the crowds who were hungering to hear about God, Jesus welcomes them and makes them into a community. The first reading speaks of Melchizedek, a pagan priest who blessed Abram's God and offered bread and wine; he prefigures Christ's universal priesthood. When we participate in the Eucharist we remember Christ's saving death and are present to its effects, St Paul explains. Do we make Jesus' perfect offering our own, thanking God for the wonderful gift of Christ's body and blood for our nourishment?

Corpus Christi – June 02, 2013

Jesus has given us His Body to eat and His Blood to drink so as to nourish us on our journey towards the Kingdom. May we be faithful to him on our journey as a married, single, ordained or consecrated person. If God is calling you, phone Fr. Hansoo Park at 416-968-0997 or contact him on vocations@vocations.ca or email Fr. Victor on olfatima@rogers.com or call at 416-757-2806 for information.

A gentle reminder ...

Congratulations to all boys and girls receiving
FIRST HOLY COMMUNION today!

Last Sunday was a special and wonderful day! All of us, family + school + parish, are so happy for all the boys and girls who received First Holy Communion! Grateful thanks to the school teachers and the parish catechists for preparing them so well. Thanks to the parents too who have been very cooperative and so helpful throughout these past five months.

These are the new communicants:
