

16th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - C

How do we welcome the Lord? Is it with feverish activity of Martha, who was concerned to provide lavish hospitality for Jesus than to commune with him? Or are we listeners and learners like Mary? Both sisters were disciples, but Martha limited herself to the 'woman's role' and Mary did what no woman was allowed to do, learn at the Master's feet. Jesus' solemn admonition to Martha and promise to Mary, is directed to all. Do we, the Church, act like true disciples of a poor man who chose a simple way of life? Do we judge those who choose new ways to relate to Christ? Martha insisted on giving Jesus what was not necessary; Mary accepted the gift of deep personal relationship with him. In the first reading, Abraham's ceremonious hospitality is repaid by God's superabundant gift, the promise to the aged Sarah of an heir. In Colossians, the apostle tells how Christ continues to live and suffer in his body, the Church. The one who proclaims Christ to the community of disciples must serve and suffer with the Lord.

17th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - C

Today Jesus, the master of prayer, teaches us to pray by addressing God familiarly as Father. The Lord wants us to depend on God as he did, praying in simple words for God's glory and our basic needs. We should be God's poor, who live from day to day with the confidence of children, whose security is loving God, who admit our sinfulness and need for help in temptations. In the parable about the person who disturbs a friend's household to borrow bread, Jesus assures us that God always hears the prayers of those who ask with insistence. But our prayer will not always be answered in the way we wish, because the good God will not give us what is harmful. God's best gift is the Holy Spirit; we need only ask! In the first reading, Abraham is one of those friends of God who intercede for the world. The just cannot claim salvation – it is God's gracious gift – but they can pray for sinners. St. Paul's letter to the Colossians holds up the cross as the way we are declared just before God. Our prayer for forgiveness will be answered because Jesus has interceded for us.

"Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you." Try it! Then listen, look, and enter. Perhaps priesthood or consecrated life awaits you. If God is calling you, contact Fr. Hansoo Park at 416-968-0997 or on vocations@vocations.ca or call Fr. Victor Mallia ocd at 416-757-2806 or email him at olfatima@rogers.com for further information.
