

30th SUN IN ORDINARY TIME - A

Does God want love or legalism? In today's gospel Jesus' critics set out once more to trap him. They pose a question much disputed at the time. Out of the 613 commandments the rabbis distinguished, which was the most important? Jesus answers with not one but two commandments cited from the scriptures. The first, to love God wholeheartedly, was recited twice daily by the devout Jew; the second was part of the Law. Love doesn't allow for measurement or legalism; it requires the total gift of ourselves. Nor can it be selective; neither commandment can be observed apart from the other. The first reading singles out those among our neighbors for whom God has a special love, as should we: the stranger, the widow, the orphan, the poor. Since these are defenseless, God himself will be their defender. God's concern shows how we must be sensitive to the needs of others. If love for God and neighbor is the mark of Jesus' followers, St. Paul observes that Christian joy makes our faith contagious.

THE SHEPHERDS' TRUST COLLECTION

The Shepherds' Trust cares for those who always cared for us ... our retired priests. They were with us to joyfully celebrate our marriage, baptize our children and also support us during times of sadness and grief. A copy of the Trust's annual newsletter is given to parishioners with next week's bulletin. Find time to read the personal stories about how priests have greatly influenced the lives of so many of us. The SHEPHERDS' TRUST also recognizes the faithfulness and years of service to us by members of religious orders working in the Archdiocese. The strong ties we have to them are extended by ensuring that funds collected in parishes served by religious order priests, be given to those orders as a contribution towards the retirement of our priests. The SHEPHERDS' TRUST COLLECTION takes place in the weekend of Nov 15/16; the Appeal will be delivered the weekend before.
