

33rd SUN IN ORDINARY TIME

The parable of the talents, like so many of Jesus' parables, is intended to shock us into a right perception of our responsibilities as Christians. As we wait expectantly for the Lord, how should we act? A man has left his money with some servants so that in his absence it might be invested. Two servants make a profit, but the third hides the money in fear. The punishment of this servant reminds us that the gospel message has been entrusted to us as Christians. We have no right to hoard it unproductively; it is given to be passed on to others. Those wise servants who spread the gospel are invited to join in their master's happiness. The first reading provides an Old Testament example of a purposeful and productive woman who deserves a reward for her work and generosity. It is our job to work and wait, St. Paul tells us. We need not be curious about the time of Christ's coming to reward us: the Day of the Lord will come upon us unexpectedly. If we are acting like children of light, we will be ready.

Family of Faith

Now that the Family of Faith campaign in the parish has come to a close I would like to begin with a word of thanks to our many helpers and volunteers who did so much patient work during the past months. A big thank you also to parishioners who, in their great love for the Church pledged amounts that, are by no means small, but big enough to help us surpass our goal. To date we cannot determine what the pledged amount is because quite a few parishioners did not respond and have not responded to our request regarding information on how they intend to fulfill their pledge. This is why we do not have an updated final amount.

Parishioners who have not replied to our calls are informed that our office will handle completion of their pledges until Sunday, November 23. After that date all payments and queries will be dealt with by the Family of Faith Campaign Central Office at the Chancery Office.

We are grateful and indebted to you all!

In Appreciation

Now that the colors have faded and the flowers in our parking lot are dead and gone ... we would like to express, once again, parishioners' appreciation and heartfelt thanks

What a wonderful job!

God will surely reward your labors of love.
