

12th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME-B

Christian faith does not preserve us – or the Church – from the storms of life. We must be willing to pass through them confident of God’s help and without undue alarm. In biblical thought, powers hostile to God and humans alike live in the sea. Mark’s description of the violent storm shows these powers attacking the disciples and the Son of God who, asleep, seems remote. Does Christ have to rebuke us, as he did the disciples in the boat with him, for having no faith? We have to believe even when we seem to be lost in the darkness. Jesus himself would pass through suffering and death, and we must follow him through death to resurrection. Like Job, we are asked to bear our suffering with unquestioning faith in God’s power and providence. How over-whelmed we should be by the knowledge of Christ’s love, St. Paul says. Jesus has suffered for us and with us so that we might be made new in him. The Christian finds true joy in doing God’s will, both in good times and in bad.

12 Sunday in O T – June 21, 2015

A Priest is Always Wrong Because...

If he begins his mass on time, his watch is advanced;
 If he begins a minute later, he keeps people waiting
 If he preaches too long, he makes people get bored;
 If his homily is too short, he is unprepared.
 If he owns a car, he is luxurious;
 If he does not own one, he does not go with the times.
 If he goes out to visit families, he is always out;
 If he does not, he has no time for them.
 If he asks for donations, he is a moneymaker;
 If he does not do it, he is too proud and lazy.
 If he takes time in the confessional, he is too slow;
 If he makes it too fast, he has no time for his penitents.
 If he renovates the church, he throws away money;
 If he does not do it, he allows everything to rot away.
 If he is with the youth, he forgets the old.
 If he is seen with women, he is a playboy;
 If he goes with men, he is not normal;
 If he is young, he has no experience;
 If he is old, he should retire.
 As long as he lives,
 there are always people who are better than him;

But if the Priest dies... there is nobody to take his place!

Let us love our Priests,
and see Jesus in them always!

MY DAD — 2015

I close my eyes and visualize,
My Dad, a giant man,
Who fills my mind, my heart, my all,
With love for what I am.

He played with me he laughed with me,
He held me in his arms,
I felt so safe, so bold and free;
enjoyed his tender charms.

The sun will shine because he's mine,
Fulfilled in ecstasy,
I'll always love this gracious man,
because, he always loves me.

By the grace of God.....Dennis Hayes.....14-June-2015
