

29th SUN IN ORDINARY TIME - B

Every Christian – including those called to leadership in the Church – must share Christ’s life of service and destiny of suffering. In the gospel, James and John ask to rule with Christ in glory. Jesus rejects their request; his followers must drink from his cup of suffering and be renewed by sharing in the cross. Even then, disciples cannot lay claim to a special reward. That is God’s to dispense; our duty is to follow the Lord. Leadership in the Church is to be radically different from worldly authority. Jesus himself provides its standard when he dies an atoning death for the benefit of everyone. Today’s first reading, from a servant song of Isaiah, offers a prophetic picture of Jesus’ own mission of redemptive suffering. He will accomplish God’s will and receive the promise made to the faithful servant. Jesus is our high priest, Hebrews tells us; he has shared our human weakness, even being tempted, though remaining free from sin. Therefore he can serve as our mediator and bring us into God’s presence. We have reason to be confident; let us cling to faith in Jesus!

29th Sunday in OT – Oct. 18, 2015

Jesus’ life was the best ‘job description’: sympathy; mercy; service; compassion; and total giving. Life is rewarding when one lives for others. Do you want to serve or be served? If you are willing to serve as a priest, religious or deacon, call Fr. Chris at 416-968-0997 or email at vocations@archtoronto.org or call Fr. Victor at 416-757-2806 or email at olfatima@rogers.com for further information.

Mass Attendance Survey 2015

This survey, requested by our Archbishop Cardinal Collins, is intended to provide an accurate profile of 'Mass Attendance' in our archdiocese. It will be done during all the weekend Masses and over two weekends – October 17/18 and 24/25 – and it will involve a number of ushers and volunteers that will do 'head counting' in every section of the church at the start of the homily. The information obtained will be transmitted to the proper department by the end of the month.
