

32nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - B

Today's gospel contrasts counterfeit devotion with true generosity. Jesus warns about those who exploit their position of religious leadership. To gain church prestige by conspicuous dress, or to seek deferential greetings or honored seats, is hypocrisy. Lengthy prayers cannot make amends for exploitation of the helpless. Jesus, whose ministry was supported by the contributions of women, noticed that the rich gave to God only from their surplus, while a poor widow contributed everything she had. Her offering was the more noteworthy because widows at that time were exceptionally vulnerable – they did not inherit their husband's estate. In the first reading, another poor widow, a pagan, shares with God's prophet the last morsel of food she has for herself and her son. God is not outdone in generosity, and her food supply lasts until the famine ends. The generosity of these two widows is like God's generosity in giving everything he had, Jesus; Jesus in turn showed us what God is like by offering himself for our sins. He continues to pray for us in God's presence!

32nd Sunday in OT – Nov. 08, 2015

How are you contributing to the treasury? God knows what gift we give to Him in love. Let us then be faithful to whatever vocation God calls us to live. Does Jesus want you to give your life to the Church?

If you think that God is calling you serve Him in a Church vocation, call Fr. Chris at 416-968-0997 or email at vocations@archtoronto.org or call Fr. Victor at 416-757-2806 or email at olfatima@rogers.com for further information.

THE SHEPHERDS' TRUST COLLECTION

The Shepherds' Trust cares for those who always cared for us ... our retired priests. They were with us to joyfully celebrate our marriage, baptize our children and also support us during times of sadness and grief. Read the personal stories about how priests have greatly influenced the lives of so many of us in the brochure you have with this weekend's bulletin. The SHEPHERDS' TRUST also recognizes the faithfulness and years of service by members of the religious orders working in the Archdiocese. The strong ties we have are extended by ensuring that funds collected in parishes served by religious order priests, be given to those orders as a contribution towards the retirement of their priests. The SHEPHERDS' TRUST APPEAL is given this weekend; the COLLECTION is taken next weekend.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROUS SUPPORT!
