

16th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - C

How do we welcome the Lord? Is it with feverish activity of Martha, who was concerned to provide lavish hospitality for Jesus than to commune with him? Or are we listeners and learners like Mary? Both sisters were disciples, but Martha limited herself to the 'woman's role' and Mary did what no woman was allowed to do, learn at the Master's feet. Jesus' solemn admonition to Martha and promise to Mary, is directed to all. Do we, the Church, act like true disciples of a poor man who chose a simple way of life? Do we judge those who choose new ways to relate to Christ? Martha insisted on giving Jesus what was not necessary; Mary accepted the gift of deep personal relationship with him. In the first reading, Abraham's ceremonious hospitality is repaid by God's superabundant gift, the promise to the aged Sarah of an heir. In Colossians, the apostle tells how Christ continues to live and suffer in his body, the Church. The one who proclaims Christ to the community of disciples must serve and suffer with the Lord.

16th Sunday in OT - July 17, 2016

We are like Martha. There's plenty to be anxious about but only one thing that is required of us. For five minutes today be like Mary; rest with Jesus and ask Him what He requires of you. If you think God is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon, call Fr. Chris at 416-968-0997 or email at vocations@archtoronto.org or call Fr. Victor at 416-757-2806 or email him at olfatima@rogers.com for further information.

WHO ARE THE CARMELITES?
 ARE YOU INTERESTED IN THE DISCALCED CARMELITE SECULAR ORDER?
 ASPIRANT PROGRAM 2016 - 2017

Have you ever experienced an inner longing to know God in a more intimate way? Have you been searching for a deeper faith and prayer life along with other lay persons and within your faith community?

The Lucia dos Santos Community of the Disalced Carmelite Secular Order here at Our Lady of Fatima Shrine invites you to COME AND SEE!

Brothers and sisters in this community of lay persons are committed to the vocation of prayer in the spirit of the Teresian Carmelite family. Their daily commitment is to foster an intimate relationship with God by following Jesus Christ under the motherly care of Mary, Mother of God and Queen of Carmel.

Secular Carmelites meet once a month – every third Tuesday – in the evening. New members are now being accepted for the next ASPIRANT PROGRAM 2016-2017 commencing early in the Fall.

For information contact the Parish Office at 416-757-2806 or email olfatima@rogers.com or visit www.ocds.ca

17th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - C

Today Jesus, the master of prayer, teaches us to pray by addressing God familiarly as Father. The Lord wants us to depend on God as he did, praying in simple words for God's glory and our basic needs. We should be God's poor, who live from day to day with the confidence of children, whose security is loving God, who admit our sinfulness and need for help in temptations. In the parable about the person who disturbs a friend's household to borrow bread, Jesus assures us that God always hears the prayers of those who ask with insistence. But our prayer will not always be answered in the way we wish, because the good God will not give us what is harmful. God's best gift is the Holy Spirit; we need only ask! In the first reading, Abraham is one of those friends of God who intercede for the world. The just cannot claim salvation – it is God's gracious gift – but they can pray for sinners. St. Paul's letter to the Colossians holds up the cross as the way we are declared just before God. Our prayer for forgiveness will be answered because Jesus has interceded for us.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy name.
 Thy Kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass
 against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom,
 the power and the glory,
 for ever and ever.
 Amen
