

14th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - C

Jesus alone cannot complete the mission given him by the Father. Others must go ahead to prepare the way, still others praying God to send workers for the harvest which waits.

Jesus sends out seventy-two disciples, symbolic of the nations of the world, with instructions for their great mission: to go defenceless, without possessions, not wasting time because the hour is urgent. They must be satisfied with whatever hospitality is offered. Those who are impenitent will know God's judgment. Jesus warns his disciples not to rejoice in the power they have through his name, but in the salvation which is promised to them also.

14th Sunday in OT - July 03, 2016

"The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into His harvest." Pray for vocations! If you think God is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon, call Fr. Chris at 416-968-0997 or email at vocations@archtoronto.org or call Fr. Victor at 416-757-2806 or email him at olfatima@rogers.com for further information.

15th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - C

There is one commandment: to love God wholeheartedly, and our neighbor as ourselves. But who is our neighbor? Jesus answers the question of the lawyer, who was seeking to save face, by telling a story in which the question is rephrased. 'To whom am I neighbor?' emphasizes, not only legalistic concern for personal salvation, but selfless love for everyone. Jesus' parable condemns the rigid caste whose profession was the service of God but who did not love a suffering human being. Ironically, the one who proved to be loving was a hated heretic – considered sinful – the Samaritan. We cannot put limits on our definition of the neighbor, but must show Jesus' compassion to all classes of people who suffer injustice and deprivation. In today's first reading, Moses insists that the law of God requires more than external observance; as a covenant inscribed on our hearts, it invites a personal relationship of love. The Colossians hymn glorifying Christ presents Jesus as the head of all creation who won salvation for us through his death. Christ's own love is our supreme example and ideal as we keep God's command to love.

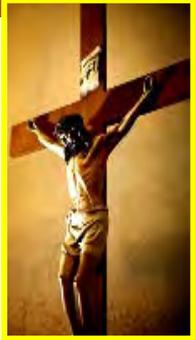

15th Sunday in OT – July 10, 2016

It's a simple concept: love God with your whole being and put that love into practice. How is God calling you to love? Have you considered the way of loving called 'priesthood' or 'religious life'? If you think God is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon, call Fr. Chris at 416-968-0997 or email at vocations@archtoronto.org or call Fr. Victor at 416-757-2806 or email olfatima@rogers.com for further information.

A Gentle Reminder ...

As part of this year's MISSION CO-OP PROGRAM of the Toronto Archdiocese, Fr. Eamon Kavanagh will make the appeal on behalf of missionary work in all of this weekend Masses. And there is a 2nd collection in aid of this mission. Envelopes will be available at all of the church entrances and one can use ordinary plain envelopes clearly indicating your personal box # in one corner and adding the title of the collection, that is, MISSION CO-OP.

Thank you for your generous support and co-operation
