

Most Holy Trinity – A

Who is God? What does knowing him mean for us? When God revealed his name to Moses, he initiated a personal relationship of love with his people. To tell one's name is to reveal one's identity. God uses the language of mother-love to describe his patience, tenderness, and fidelity. Given such a relationship, even sinful people can beg to be adopted as God's children. John's three verses sum up the entire gospel: God loved us so much that he sent his Son. To believe in Jesus is to know God; to reject Jesus is to refuse life. Paul's letter calls us to the shared joy which is the mark of Christians. God's children mirror his love, peace and unity; by helping one another we become more like God. Our 'kiss' of peace during the Eucharist expresses our love. Paul's concluding blessing calls on God as source of our love, Jesus the Crucified who has manifested God's love for us, and the indwelling Spirit who enables us to love God and each other. The life of the Trinity is model and source for our Christian lives.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

Fatima, Portugal, April 20, 2017 – Interview . 4

After the first appearance Manuel Marto – the dad of Jacinta and Francisco – accompanied his children to the following apparitions, and although he didn't see anything, "he said that he heard a sound, like a bee inside a jar." He was also present for the miracle of the sun, Marto said, explaining that "if he believed before, he continued to believe" after.

Marto said that for her, this belief was extraordinary, because "my grandparents weren't at the beatification, none of it. When their children died they were known, but not with the fame of sanctity." "So they thought their children were a little different from the others, but they didn't know how it was going to be. It was a question every day," she said, but noted that her grandfather in particular "always believed."

Referring to news of the acceptance of a second miracle allowing for the canonization of her uncle and aunt, Marto said she feels "a big joy" knowing they will be proclaimed saints. The two will be canonized May 13, during Pope Francis' two-day visit to Portugal.

However, she stressed that the news "is not only for the family, it's for Portugal and the whole world. Because Our Lady came for the world, and they were a message for the world." "I sometimes ask myself how two children that were seven and nine years old managed to capture and respond to the message of God. They had a message and assumed this message," she said, noting that Francisco was all about "praising God, adoring God, worshipping God." Jacinta, however, was primarily concerned with conversion, and wanted that "everyone return to God, that everyone convert, that everyone went to heaven." "She lived this in anguish," Marto said, explaining that she often asked herself: "we who have all these means of communication, we know what is happening in the world, all the suffering in the world, we see it on television...and what do we do?"
