

Pentecost Sunday – A

Within the fifty days of Easter, the feast of the Ascension emphasizes Jesus' return to the Father and its consequence: his charge to make disciples of the world. The letter to the Ephesians tells us that Jesus is head of the Church, his body on earth. We see him asserting his authority both in Acts and the gospel as he takes leave of his followers. Through preaching, sacramental ministry and instruction, the Church will continue Christ's work of making disciples.

The misunderstanding and doubt which characterize his followers as he says farewell make it clear that this work is God's, not human doing. It is the Spirit of Christ who gives faith and strength to these human witnesses and makes it possible for them to continue Jesus' work in the world. One day the entire human family will recognize God to be God, and Christ will be worshipped as king and head of humankind. To hasten that day we join the psalmist in singing God's praise.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Queen Beauty of Mount Carmel ... Pray for us

Fatima, Portugal, April 20, 2017 – Interview . 4

After the first appearance Manuel Marto – the dad of Jacinta and Francisco – accompanied his children to the following apparitions, and although he didn't see anything, "he said that he heard a sound, like a bee inside a jar." He was also present for the miracle of the sun, Marto said, explaining that "if he believed before, he continued to believe" after.

Marto said that for her, this belief was extraordinary, because "my grandparents weren't at the beatification, none of it. When their children died they were known, but not with the fame of sanctity." "So they thought their children were a little different from the others, but they didn't know how it was going to be. It was a question every day," she said, but noted that her grandfather in particular "always believed."

Referring to news of the acceptance of a second miracle allowing for the canonization of her uncle and aunt, Marto said she feels "a big joy" knowing they will be proclaimed saints. The two will be canonized May 13, during Pope Francis' two-day visit to Portugal.

However, she stressed that the news "is not only for the family, it's for Portugal and the whole world. Because Our Lady came for the world, and they were a message for the world." "I sometimes ask myself how two children that were seven and nine years old managed to capture and respond to the message of God. They had a message and assumed this message," she said, noting that Francisco was all about "praising God, adoring God, worshipping God." Jacinta, however, was primarily concerned with conversion, and wanted that "everyone return to God, that everyone convert, that everyone went to heaven." "She lived this in anguish," Marto said, explaining that she often asked herself: "we who have all these means of communication, we know what is happening in the world, all the suffering in the world, we see it on television...and what do we do?"
