6th Sunday of Easter-B

Today's gospel, which continues last Sunday's about the vine and the branches, lets us glimpse the Church as Christ wants it to be. Although comprised of sinful human beings, the Church is to be the concrete sign in the world of God's love. Our model is the loving communion of Father and Son, our pattern the ready obedience of Jesus. Obeying with him brings tremendous joy. God's command to his Son, to love us even to laying down his life, is Jesus' command to his followers. The crucial test of discipleship is selfless love, which is not a feeling but an attitude of living for one another. By teaching us the secret of his life and actions, Jesus has made us his friends, choosing and commissioning us as a community to manifest God's love to the world. Even as this chosen community, we have no right to put limits on God's activity and make rules for the Holy Spirit: this is the message of Acts. As John's letter says so memorably, God is love. Do we as Church convey this astonishing message, which Jesus acted out in his own life?

6th Sunday of Easter –May 06, 2018

The greatest love story that ever happened: God continuing love for His people. All God asks is "Love one another as I have loved you". The world really needs to see people who are trying to love others with all their hearts. Priest, religious and deacons can be excellent examples of this love. If you are willing to answer God's call, call Fr. Chris Lemieux at 416-968-0997 or email vocations@archtoronto.org or call Fr. Dominic Borg, OCD at 416-757-2806 or email him at olfatima@rogers.com for further information.
